"Little Women: The Musical" features a rich array of characters, each with unique traits and relationships that drive the story of the March sisters.

Little Women – Character Descriptions & Vocal Ranges

Jo March (18-26): Passionate, independent, and adventurous. She is an aspiring writer struggling to find her place in the world. She longs for independence and freedom.
• Vocal Range: E3–A5 Mezzo-soprano

Meg March (20-30): The eldest and most traditional sister who is prim, proper, and romantic. Longs for a fine life and eventually marries John Brooke.
• Vocal Range: A#3–Gb5 Soprano

Beth March (16-24): A selfless, timid, and highly musical sister who acts as a peacemaker before tragically falling ill. She is the voice of reason always ready with a kind word or thought. Ability to play piano a plus.
• Vocal Range: A3–G5 Soprano

Amy March (16-21): The youngest, highly energetic/artistic sister who is somewhat spoiled, loves style, and eventually marries Laurie.
• Vocal Range: G3–Gb5 Soprano

Marmee March (40-50): Is the resilient and loving matriarch of the family who hides her true fears and vulnerabilities. With firm resolve and a strong moral tone, she is caring for the March girls while her husband is at war.
• Vocal Range: Eb3–Eb5 Mezzo-soprano

Professor Bhaer (mid 30's): A proper, sensible, and passionate German scholar boarding in New York who encourages Jo's writing and soon falls in love with her unique and boundless energy. German accent a plus.
• Vocal Range: G2–F#4 Baritone

Laurie Laurence (16-26): The bright-eyed, charming, and sensitive boy-next-door who loves Jo before falling for Amy. Embraced as a member and dear friend of the March family.
• Vocal Range: Bb2–Bb4 Tenor

Mr. John Brooke (25-35): Laurie's tutor and hard-working friend who shows little emotion until he notices and then marries Meg. Also, a bit of a romantic.
• Vocal Range: up to F#4 Tenor

Aunt March (50-80): A formidable, domineering, and wealthy socialite great-aunt who acts as a comedic yet overbearing matron.
• Vocal Range: E3–F5 Mezzo-soprano

Mr. Laurence (50-80): Laurie's stern grandfather who struggles to express emotion but shows his soft side by gifting Beth a piano.
• Vocal Range: D3-E4 Baritone
